SO DAMN FUNNY

The media MONSTER makes $$$ from reality shows knowing that in MOST cases these chicks (and some dudes) are doing this just to keep their name out there because they didn't have ANY talent to begin with.

IT MAKES ABOUT AS MUCH SENSE AS RUNNING IN A HIGH-HEELED SHOE RACE BACKWARDS!

Words From an Ol' Wise Ass

Back in my day, I was what you call "try"sexual and no government was paying for my birth control. These days, you've parents neglecting their children and ton of diseases with no cure in sight. Even these damn reality shows promote promiscuity without mention of anyone going to get a raincoat for the occasion. Don't spread your hate for humanity by not wrapping it up, watching your partners or just go somewhere in private with a cup of ice cold water if you can't love yourself.

Oh yeah, IT'S CALLED THE FREE CLINIC FOR A REASON

WEDDINGS THAT WENT REALLY WRONG!

As June is the month most known for weddings, and most are intended to be a happy event in everyone's life (there should be no bridezillas in the vicinity). Some come with an extra few laughs (maybe this will give you an idea for your ceremony :))

"We had no photographer and my mouth was photographed wide open (like a bass fish) for the first kiss."

"The minister wore a rainbow scarf and it was not a gay wedding."

"I threw up on the groom before the bridal march."

"The preacher forgot about us and was downstairs holding an AA meeting."

"The bride and groom sang to each other, sans any music to drown out the flat notes as there were plenty. They served what Tyra calls "ghetto punch" (red fruit punch drink w/vanilla ice cream) and they had cold cuts. Guess if a person had high blood pressure or diabetes, they had to go home to eat."

"They dyed their dogs pink and the dogs ran down the aisle."
